

If the Light Has Gone Out

...the light has come into the world, and men loved darkness rather than light... John 3:19

B♭ - 4 - MI↓

Very slowly

1. When the sun of your life has gone down,
 2. When you come to the end of the way,
 3. When be - fore judg - ment's bar you shall stand,

And the clouds in the west turn to gold,
 And the life's sto - ry of your life have been told,
 And the deeds of your life have been told,

End - less death will to you then have come,
 O, how sad all to you then will ap - pear then,
 Good and e - vil ap - pears, O, what then,

If the light has gone out in your soul.
 If the light has gone out in your soul.
 If the light has gone out in your soul?

Chorus

O, just think how in death you would feel,
you will feel,

With the light grow - ing dim in your soul;
in your soul;

O, how lone - ly 'twill be, O, how still!
how still!

If the light has gone out in your soul.

The musical score is written for a vocal line and a piano accompaniment. The key signature is B-flat major (two flats). The vocal line is written in a soprano or alto clef, and the piano accompaniment is written in a bass clef. The score consists of three systems, each with a vocal line and a piano accompaniment. The lyrics are: "O, just think how in death you would feel, you will feel, With the light grow - ing dim in your soul; in your soul; O, how lone - ly 'twill be, O, how still! how still! If the light has gone out in your soul." The piano accompaniment features a steady eighth-note bass line and chords that support the vocal melody. The vocal line has a melodic contour that rises and falls, with some phrases being repeated or extended.
