

Rabboni!

She turned toward Him and cried out in Aramaic, 'Rabboni!' John 20:10-16

B♭ - 2 - MI↓

1. You were once there when the world had turned a - gainst me.
2. come once a - gain bring - ing all I have to of - fer,

When the dark - ness had dark pos - sessed my soul, Your ten - der
Just to find a dark and emp - ty tomb, Your ho - ly mer - cy made me whole. When I I fol - lowed You, my frame some - how ex - humed. Then I hear some - one say, "Why are life was so filled with mean - ing ing? From the morn - ing the to tears so free - ly fall - ing? Can't you hear the voice

Second time to Coda

the eve - ning. I've seen the face of God.
that's call - ing? A voice that knows your name."

When I close my eyes I can hear Your voice so clear - ly say - ing

"Fa - ther, please for - give them, for they know not what they do." What good rea - son did they have to do the things they did to You? So I

Coda
Rab - bo - ni! My Teach - er and my God! You're a - live, and my bur - dens melt a - way. Rab - bo - ni!

Sweet Son of God Most High! I know death has lost its pow - er and Your glo - ry's here to stay. stay.