1. O Lord, I come to Thee, Thy blood is all my plea,
 2. O Lord of truth and love, All earth - ly things a - bove,
 3. Thy word I would o - bey, And keep from day to day,

My - self I give for Thee to live, De - vot - ed thus to be;
 Thy life be - stow and make me know Thy right - eous will to prove;
 Thy pre - cepts pure and thus se - cure My heart from er - ror's way.

O let Thy love be mine, And fill with joy di - vine,
 O keep me in the light, And lead me by Thy might,
 Then let the world de - ride, With - in Thy love I'll hide,

Thy ten - der care now let me share, My life, my all, are Thine.
 Till life shall end and I as - cend, To heav'n where all is bright.
 No foes can harm nor fears a - larm, While keep - ing near Thy side.
