The first system of the hymn consists of two staves. The upper staff is in treble clef with a key signature of one sharp (F#). It contains a melody of eighth and sixteenth notes. The lower staff is in bass clef with the same key signature, providing a harmonic accompaniment with chords and single notes. The lyrics are written below the upper staff.

you will see, 'Twas best for Him to have His way with thee.

The second system of the hymn also consists of two staves in the same key signature and clefs as the first. The melody continues on the upper staff, and the accompaniment continues on the lower staff. The lyrics are written below the upper staff, ending with a double bar line.
