The musical score is written for two voices (Soprano and Bass) and piano accompaniment. It is in the key of F major (one flat) and 3/4 time. The melody is simple and hymn-like, with a clear distinction between the vocal lines and the piano accompaniment. The lyrics are printed below the vocal staves, with the first two lines of the hymn appearing in two parts (1. and 2.). The piano accompaniment provides a steady harmonic support, with chords and single notes that complement the vocal melody. The score concludes with a final cadence in the piano part.
