

God's Family

Be kindly affectioned one to another with brotherly love. Romans 12:10

F - 3 - MI†

1. We're part of the fam - 'ly that's been born a - gain;
 2. When a broth - er meets sor - row we all feel his grief;
 3. And tho' some go be - fore us, we'll all meet a - gain;

Part of the fam - 'ly whose love knows no end;
 When he's passed thru the val - ley we all feel re - lief;
 Just in - side the cit - y as we en - ter in;

For Je - sus has saved us, and made us His own,
 To - geth - er in sun - shine, to - geth - er in rain,
 There'll be no more part - ing, with Je - sus we'll be;

Now we're part of the fam - 'ly that's on its way home.
 To - geth - er in vic - t'ry thru His pre - cious name.
 To - geth - er for - ev - er, God's fam - i - ly.

Chorus

And some-times we laugh to - geth - er, some-times we cry;

The first line of the chorus is written on a grand staff (treble and bass clefs). The melody is in the treble clef, starting with a quarter rest, followed by a series of eighth and quarter notes. The lyrics are placed below the staff, with hyphens indicating syllables across notes.

Some-times we share to - geth - er, heart - aches and sighs;

The second line of the chorus continues the melody. It features a mix of eighth and quarter notes, with some notes beamed together. The lyrics are aligned with the notes.

Some-times we dream to - geth - er of how it will be;

The third line of the chorus shows the melody continuing. There are some rests and longer note values, such as a half note. The lyrics are placed below the staff.

When we all get to Heav - en, God's fam - i - ly.

The fourth line of the chorus concludes the phrase. It ends with a double bar line. The melody features a final sustained note in the treble clef.
